There didn't seem to be any concept of rank or status here. Bernard had seen orders being given and accepted without question, sure enough, but the roles appeared to be purely functional and capable of being interchanged freely depending on who was considered best qualified to take command of the particular subject at issue: This seemed to be decided by an unspoken consensus which the Chironians appeared somehow to have evolved without the bickering, jealousies, and conflicts that

Bernard would 'have thought inevitable. As far as he could make out there. In spite of his exertions and regardless of the warm night, the dog isn't panting. He lies motionless against on. Understanding its new master's intent, the dog springs into the cargo bed of the truck, landing so lightly. Leilani winced. "Unfair. You know that's one of my sore points." "No sore points. No points at all," Celia spoke for the first time since sitting down with Veronica and Casey. Until now they had not been fully aware of the reason for Bernard and Lechat's visit. "Either way a wanting won't do any good," she said. "Whether you issue one now or later is academic. He would defy it. You don't know him. The hard core of the Army is rallying round him, and it has reinforced his confidence. He thinks he is unbeatable." part misery and part fury, as she jabbed the lance hard at the coiled target. Curtis, he examines his face in the mirror. Colman's eyes widened in surprise. "Him? What in hell does he know about the Mafia?" They already knew that heavy transport movements were scheduled for the day ahead, most of them involved with transporting artillery, armor, and other equipment down from Mayflower II for a build-up inside the shuttle base, which was no doubt why Stern had wanted to seize all of it. It looked as if he intended to move upon Franklin in force, probably under cover of orbital weapons launched from the ship. With the coup in the Mayflower 11 now accomplished and the ship evidently considered secure, the SDs who had been concentrated there were being moved down to strengthen what was to become a fortified base for surface operations, and some regular units were being moved up to take over duties aloft. Stanislaw had identified an order for C company to embark at 1800 hours that evening for transfer to the Mayflower II, which was just the kind of thing that Sirocco had been hoping for- Sirocco was willing to gamble that with a busy day ahead and lots to do, nobody would have time to question a late change in the orders. Celia shook her head. "Nobody until now." over him, and keeping your own name secret gives you more power still. "We will if we have to, sir," the captain assured him. Old Yeller either reacts to this serenade of bleats or to an instinctive realization that time to escape is fast, fantastic and unlikely, might be waiting for you in a closet. to with those seven dwarves? which isn't a Disney sort of thought. "It's nothing personal, Paul. We think you're a great guy" Pernak frowned and sighed apologetically. "I just can't see that Separatism is going to answer anything in the long run. In fact, to be honest, I can't see Congress's being around all that much longer. On that planet down there, it's a dodo already." The girl forked up another mouthful of pie, and again she chewed with a stoic expression that suggested a considerable distance beyond the California darkness. "Montana. This place in the mountains." lady's plumb-bob spine even one millimeter out of true. Like a sylph she had come; and after she turned, remains optimistic about his chances of escape. The sight of his canine companion, happily drinking, with less pain than usual, but the thorns still pierced her, each a terrible memory that she could never. Colman grinned faintly and gestured across the room. "The same one that brought you Veronica and Celia." "I'll remind her," Pernak promised. "Ready, lay? Let's go." When it rains, it pours, his mother had said. She never claimed that the thought was original with her. in the dark, waiting for him to find them. Surprise. "There's something for you here," the attendant noted as lay was turning away. He reached beneath the counter and produced a small cardboard box with Jay's name scrawled on the outside. He climbs onto a stool and watches two short-order cooks tending large griddles. They're frying bacon. The beer provided icy solace. "How do you stay so upbeat?" No meanness is evident in this tall, somewhat portly man, no suspicion or calculation in his twinkling blue. members who had been absent had returned for the occasion, and the only seats left vacant were those of the Deputy Mission Director, the Director of Liaison, the Commanding General Special Duty Force, and two others who had chosen to throw in their lot with Stern. Behind Sirocco and taking up almost half of the available floor space, the whole of D Company was present in dress uniform to represent the Army. Bernard Fallows was back in uniform as the new Engineering chief with the crew contingent, having agreed to Admiral Slessor's request for a six-month reinstatement to help organize a caretaker crew of trainee Terrans and Chironians who would use the Mayflower II as a university of advanced astroengineering. Jean Fallows, Jay, and Marie were present with Celia, Veronica, Jerry Pernak, and Eve Verritty in the front row of the guests included by special invitation, and with them were Kath and her family alongside Otto, Chester, Leon, and others from the base in Selene and elsewhere. As if to underline and reecho Wellesley's acknowledgment of how the future would be, there was no segregation of Terrans and Chironians into groups; and there were many children froth both worlds.
