It was a sleepy southern island with a pretty old port town, So they sailed south in Hopeful, landing first at malodorous Geath, and then in the guise of peddlers working their way from one islet to the next among the mazy channels. Crow had stocked the boat with better wares than most householders of the Isles were used to seeing, and Tern offered them at fair prices, mostly in barter, since there was little money among the islanders. Their popularity ran ahead of them. It was known that they would trade for books, if the books were old and uncanny. But in the Isles all books were old and all uncanny, what there was of them..She slid out of her clothes, the man's breeches and shirt that were all she had, and slipped naked..to intrude on her solitude, which daunted him as did the strangeness of the Grove itself.
