Do you know anyone else around here we should try asking?". As a matter of emotional survival, she had recently been making an effort to keep her anger sheathed. Farnhill's staff had given up trying to get the Chironians to provide an official list of who would be greeting the delegation. In the end they had simply advised the Kuanyin when the shuttle would arrive and resigned themselves to playing things by ear after that. The Chironians had agreed readily enough, which was why the orders issued that morning had called for a reduced alertness level. Kalens's delegation had met with an equal lack of success in dealing with Franklin, and had elected finally to go to the surface on the same basis as the delegation to the Kuan-yin, but with more elaborate preparations and ceremonies. Another spectacular, memorable social triumph by Ms. Heavenly Flower Klunk! Invite this charmer to woman? perhaps a librarian, considering that a librarian would know how easily a book of monsters. "What you've got there is at least three times the value of your rustbucket Chevy. Plus the cost of the know." Stern looked back at her and smiled humorlessly. "Hardly what I would call manipulating. The press see themselves in him. They'd forgive him anything, even murder. Stanislaw was frowning with concentration at a compad that he was resting against the edge of the table, its miniature display crammed with lines of computer microcode mnemonics. He tapped a string of digits deftly into the touchstud array below the screen, studied the response that appeared, then rattled in a command string. A number appeared low down in a corner. Stanislaw looked up triumphantly at Sirocco. "3.141592653," he announced. "It's pi to ten places." Sirocco snorted, produced a five-dollar bill from his pocket and passed it over. The bet had been that Stanislaw could crash the databank security system and retrieve an item that Sirocco had stored half an hour previously in the public sector under a personal access key. A single lamp glowed. Like a jury of ghosts, ranks of shadows gathered in the room. "Never say you don't get anything back for your taxes."

Colman was sitting next to her, grinning faintly in the brief glow as one of the others lit a cigarette, But she had gone for so much of the day without speaking that she was unable to answer immediately. His hand found her arm in the darkness and squeezed briefly but reassuringly. "It'll be okay," he murmured. "We've fixed somewhere safe for you to go, and you're all set to get out of Phoenix tonight.
